On the 4th of July, Colby was spending time with friends and family at a lake and did a shallow water dive standing waist deep in water. He shattered his C6 vertebrae, damaging his spinal cord. This accident has left him with an injury that qualifies him as a quadriplegic. He is currently being treated at Madonna Rehabilitation Hospital. Colby will be at Madonna for at least 84 days. A typical day at Madonna costs over $2000 plus additional expenses. Although they do have medical insurance, Colby & JoAnna will still be responsible for a significant amount that insurance will not cover.
