

2010 Sport Pilot Championship

Tune up your favorite .40-size sport plane and come on out to Hawk Field this summer! RC pilots from all over will be competing at pylon racing, pattern aerobatics, and even RC combat. Some will compete for glory, others compete for trophies and awards, and all who participate will have a great time!

SPC Pylon Racing Event Saturday, May 22, 2010 11:00AM to 3:00PM	SPC Pattern Event Saturday, June 19, 2010 11:00AM to 3:00PM	SPC Combat Event Saturday, July 24th 11:00AM to 3:00PM
Pilots will compete on a dual pylon racing circuit. Pilots will race in multiple heats, with rankings determined by overall score. Fuel will be provided by each pilot for his own individual use. 15% nitro sport fuel is recommended. Pilots will be on their honor to use only standard off-the-shelf blends. Awards will be presented for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places.	Pilots will compete by performing the 2010 AMA 401 Sportsman pattern sequence. Competitors will be paired up randomly to spot & call for one another. Contestants may also be asked to judge. All pilots will fly three rounds, and the average of each pilot's top two rounds will determine the scoring. Awards will be presented for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places.	Pilots will compete under RCCA Open Combat regulations with each match being scored by fellow contestants. 30' crepe paper streamers will be provided. Matches will consist of four to six pilots battling for five minutes. Rankings will be determined by combining match scores for all rounds. Awards will be presented for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places.

What Should I Bring to Fly?

Any sport plane or trainer with a 52" or greater wingspan is welcome. Common airframes that will work well include the Avistar, Tiger 2, Four Star, Ultra Stick, Easy Sport, Pulse XT 40, Super Sportster, Escapade, and many others. Not sure about your plane or engine? Just ask!

Wingspan Range	Minimum Weight	Maximum Engine Displacement
52 inches to 53.75 inches	4.5 pounds dry ready to fly	2C .42 cu in / 4C .56 cu in
54 inches or greater	5 pounds dry ready to fly	2C .49 cu in / 4C .65 cu in

Entries will be limited to the first 24 applicants. Please contact Ed Paasch to reserve your spot and your radio channel by calling Ed's cell phone at (402) 510-8730 or by e-mailing bigedmustafa@hotmail.com. All pilots must pay a $5.00 landing fee to participate regardless of club affiliation.
